Are you athletic? Want to play lacrosse - a fast, challenging, field game? then this is for you....

Are you already taking part in sport (swimming, running, track, gym, netball or even ballet) and want to get involved? or Do you want to try your skill at a new sport?

Want to play at School?

You must be female, U14 or U13 (born after 1 September 1995) reasonably fit and determined to be good at the sport. You must live or go to school in Elmbridge.

Sign up now!

Cobham lacrosse are looking for new club players that have determination to succeed or want to be involved in a fast growing girls' sport.

Try to persuade your school friends to join the programme too. We will try to coach you at school during the day or evenings / weekends and gradually integrate you with our current U14s – playing matches for Cobham to help you prepare for Surrey Trials. If you get selected we will pay all fees and provide you with some help towards lacrosse equipment

"I started playing lacrosse 18 months ago, I was selected for the Surrey team and now I hope to go to University and continue playing. Everyone at Cobham Lacrosse is very welcoming and i've met some great friends'. Nicky Williams, Rydens School.
